Adult Learning in Specialist Schools Planning for Effective Practice

In 2006 Townsend Consultancy Ltd carried out a joint research project for the Specialist Schools and Academies Trust (SSAT) and NIACE (National Institute of Adult and Continuing Education).

This research project culminated in the publication of Adult Learning in Specialist Schools Planning for Effective Practice ISBN 1-905150-63-6 The author of this publication is Jenny Townsend who is the Director of Townsend Consultancy Ltd.

Audience

This publication was written for the following audience:

Senior leaders in schools; FE and community organisations; Community and Extended schools sections at the DfES, national and local learning and skills councils; and local authorities.

Aims

To provide examples of good practice in offering and transforming adult learning through specialist schools' community plans, and case studies of effective practice in adult learning; to demonstrate how good, innovative practice in adult learning can be replicated in other specialist schools.

This publication outlines examples of good practice in adult learning which have been developed through the community element of specialist schools. The publication includes recommendations for the future development of adult learning in specialist schools.
